Dear Mr. Cooper:

As requested in your letter of 21 August 1986, a diligent and extensive file search has been conducted in the appropriate components of this Agency (specifically in the Offices of the Director, Inspector General, Director of Security, Deputy Director for Operations, and General Counsel) for eight specific documents of interest to Senators Simon, Metzenbaum, and Kennedy of the Senate Judiciary Committee. These documents date from Justice William Rehnquist's tenure as Assistant Attorney General, Office of Legal Counsel.

Our search discovered only two of the documents listed in the index attached to your letter. They are document number 1, the Directive or Haig Memorandum of June 30, 1971 and document number 3, National Security Study Memorandum 113 dated January 15, 1971. However, in a telephone conversation this morning with Barbara Percival of your Office, we agreed it was unnecessary to provide you with our copies of these documents since the Department has obtained copies from the National Archives.
